SUMMARY

Senior 3D Artist & Technical Team Lead with 5+ years of experience in high-end XR production. Managed nearly 150 projects and contributed to over 400+ commercial releases for global brands including Nike, Adidas, Chanel, and IKEA. Expert in optimizing high-fidelity, game-ready assets for tight technical constraints (Web/Snapchat) and pioneering digital fashion innovations recognized at London Fashion Week.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Technical Team Lead | 2023-2026

Qreal

- Directed and personally managed the production cycle of 150+ high-scale XR projects for industry giants like Walmart and Amazon, ensuring quality and performance standards.
- Led cross-functional teams to deliver 3D assets that reached millions of users, maintaining a balance between creative excellence and platform-specific constraints.

XR Expert | 2022-2023

Qreal

- Contributed to the successful delivery of 250+ commercial XR projects, specializing in fitting complex 3D data into strict 8MB limits without compromising visual fidelity.
- Bridged the gap between creative design and technical constraints, delivering assets that meet rigorous Game-Ready industry standards.

3D Generalist | 2020-2022

Qreal

- Specialized in modeling/ optimizing complex 3D models to fit within strict platform constraints (e.g., Snapchat's 8MB limit) while maintaining high visual quality and performance.
 - Managed the full asset creation pipeline, including high-to-low poly modeling, retopology, PBR texturing, and rigging tailored for real-time mobile environments.
